

At the Doug Store
(Greb)

I went down to the Doug Store
But Doug he wasn't there
Just some guy named Raymond
And man he didn't care

He said, "Doug just stepped out
And he won't be coming back"
I told him to get ready
For the nuclear attack

I think I lost my mojo
Because it sure ain't working
Maybe Doug's got it with him
Stole it when I wasn't looking

I went down to the Doug Store
And Doug was in the back
He was laid out on some cartons
Had a massive heart attack

And then this guy named Raymond
He let out an awful scream
I knew to my discomfort
That life is but a dream

Throughout our lives we're rowing
Rowing merrily along
So it really doesn't matter
Who's right and who is wrong
