

Got No Time

Up is down and wrong is right
The whole world's down to black and white
Got no time for shades of gray
Got no time for what others say

Truth is relative and so are facts
Empathy is what we lack
Got no time for opposing views
Got no time for people like you

Spending your life as an online troll
Making it clear you're a real asshole
Got no time for the hate you spew
Got no time for people like you
