

Life Is a Bitch

(Matt Tucker)

It's late now, and I'm half gone
My Brains in pain, don't know my own song
Don't matter much, better 'n' mowing the lawn
Besides – be over soon, by the end of the song

Got up tonight, black cat outside my door
Fire in the sky, sun is hanging low
Care in the world, time be moving slow
Get high now, try to stay mellow

(Chorus)

Life is a bitch,
Don't care anymore
Life is a bitch,
And I'm heading out for the door
Life is a bitch,
Don't care anymore
Life is a bitch,
And I'm heading out for the door

Living a life, full of misery
Nothing is good, just suffering
Always alone, no room company
Don't really mind, just so damn lonely

(Chorus)
