

Televisonary (Greb)

Watching the world on my tv set / See all the places I ain't been yet
But why should I go when it comes in my home? / I don't need people, I can see it alone

I stay inside whenever I'm able / Why go outside when you've got cable?
If it comes on tv I'll run out and buy it / If it's on tv who am I to deny it?

(Chorus)
Television is my prison
But prison with a golden view
Television is my religion
Ninety-six channels all coming through
Ninety-six channels all coming through

The world outside is cold and hard / Terrors await me in my backyard
The world looks strange when it's lit by sunlight / Fear walks the streets in the dark of night

If I stay inside and hold my remote / I don't need a car and I don't need a coat
If I want to talk there's always the phone / Just don't get between this dog and his bone

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

I don't want to stay afraid for the next decade
I don't want to worry about the things that I forgot
I want to feel secure about what I know for sure
I don't want to be left out because I have some doubt

The world's at my touch, it's at my control / It is for this power I have sold my soul
I'm a state of one, I am my nation / I am the master of all of creation

(Chorus)
